

The Lord
Considers the Lowly

Song 6 The Lord Considers the Lowly

Psalm 41 (Blessed is the one who considers the poor! The Lord delivers him in the day of trouble; the Lord sustains him on his sickbed; You have healed me)

The Lord regards the lowly, His heart upon them stays
In the day of trouble, the Lord will save their ways
The Lord will guard them, keep them safe in life
On earth they shall be blessed, in His eternal strife

O Lord, O Lord, lowly in humility
O Lord, O Lord, You protect me
O Lord, O Lord, lowly in humility
O Lord, O Lord, You make me free

Are you lowly, or do you boast in pride so vain?
Are you humble, or do you seek in vain?
Ponder and humble yourself, be lowly now
Meditate and praise God, His glory avow

The Lord will descend, He will lift you high
Praise forever, let your song touch the sky

O Lord, O Lord, lowly in humility
O Lord, O Lord, You protect me
O Lord, O Lord, lowly in humility
O Lord, O Lord, You make me free

The Lord regards the lowly, His heart upon them stays
In the day of trouble, the Lord will save their ways
The Lord will guard them, keep them safe in life
On earth they shall be blessed, in His eternal strife

O Lord, O Lord, lowly in humility
O Lord, O Lord, You protect me
O Lord, O Lord, lowly in humility
O Lord, O Lord, You make me free

O righteous ones before the Lord, your foes will face His ire
The God will answer for you, in His holy fire
O faithful sons of man who trust the Lord with all your heart
He'll place you in His fortress, safe from every dart

O Lord, O Lord, lowly in humility
O Lord, O Lord, You protect me
O Lord, O Lord, lowly in humility
O Lord, O Lord, You make me free

The Lord regards the lowly, His heart upon them stays
In the day of trouble, the Lord will save their ways
The Lord will guard them, keep them safe in life
On earth they shall be blessed, in His eternal strife
